Urban Nature

ON THE WATER AND ALL AROUND!

Our DNA in a few words

TO DISCOVER SALABERRY-DE-VALLEYFIELD, YOU NEED TO LEARN A FEW LOCAL EXPRESSIONS. HERE, WATER SHAPES THE LANDSCAPE, FLAVOURS DEFINE OUR IDENTITY, AND THE REGATTAS MAKE THE WHOLE CITY COME ALIVE. LET'S TALK VALLEYFIELD!

Campi Glossary

CAMPI (SHORT FOR CAMPIVALLENSIEN)

The official name for the people who live here is Campivallensien. In Salaberry-de-Valleyfield, we also simply say Campi. A short, unifying word that reflects local identity.

CAMPIVORE

Being a campivore means experiencing Valleyfield through its products, artisans, and local flavours. It's about discovering the region with an appetite for all things local.

CAMPICULTEUR

A campiculteur is a producer, artisan, or creator of local flavours. It's the person behind the delicious food and beverage offerings that define our region.

VALLEYFIELD GRILLS

A true local culinary signature, Valleyfield Grills are flavourful slices of pork seasoned with local spices and grilled to perfection. Served "loose" or in a sandwich, they are a must-try classic for anyone wanting to experience Valleyfield like a local.

MOCO

An iconic local name, MOCO refers to the former Montreal Cotton Company. The hotel that bears its name is housed in this historic cotton mill, an important reminder of the city's industrial heritage.

THE REGATTAS

The Regattas are breathtaking hydroplane races, often compared to Formula 1 on water. For more than 85 years, they have energized the entire city, embodying spectacle, adrenaline, and local pride.

REGATTA FAN

A regatta fan is a true enthusiast—someone who follows the races, feels the adrenaline, and carries the Regattas in their heart like an ambassador. We also speak of female regatta fans, who are more numerous than one might think.

OLD CANAL

Located in the heart of the city's nautical district, the Old Canal is an iconic destination where heritage, boating, and urban charm come together. Visitors come here to stroll along the waterfront, dock their boats, enjoy the wharves and terrace, and take in outdoor performances and events.
